SUMMARY

Passionate Full Stack Developer with a knack for creating powerful web applications. I excel in both crafting visually appealing front-ends using HTML, CSS, and React.js, and building robust back-ends with Node.js, Express.js, Mysql and MongoDB. My strength lies in seamlessly integrating these technologies for end-to-end solutions. I thrive on user-centric design, leveraging hands-on experience to navigate the development lifecycle with efficiency. Ready to bring technical expertise and innovative solutions to your team.
